canoeing the mohican..

Mohican-Loudonville is not named the Camping & Canoe Capital of Ohio for just any reason. In addition to the 4,500 campsites, Mohican-Loudonville began its canoe livery business in 1961 with the vision of Dick Frye. It was Frye's vision of opening the first commercial canoe livery in Loudonville, Ohio. Since the beginning, canoeing remains the most popular activity in the area.

It is in thanks to the state and local government, citizens and businesses of Mohican-Loudonville that over 32 miles of the Mohican River was designated and officially known as the Mohican State Scenic River in December 2006. The lower section of the Clear Fork and Mohican is made up of a forested valley where the clean water provides habitats for all kinds of plants and flowers.

To paddle or float down this river is floating on history - literally. As the river winds through Holmes to Knox County, the water enthusiast is crossing the Greenville Treaty line of 1795. This is where the United States and Native American tribes established lands south of the treaty line that were open to settlers, while the north remained with the Native Americans.

If new to the canoeing/kayaking experience, friendly service is ready for any adventure. Some things to consider: typically all trips down the river are first come, first served.

The mid-week day trip is a great way to enjoy the scenery and wildlife, or splash down the river with the fun weekend crowd.

It is always courteous and worth calling ahead for ease and preparation if there is a large group planning to go at one time. The call ahead ensures that there is enough equipment and fun for all. Don't forget to be prepared.

No Styrofoam coolers, since they break too easily and litter the river. Courtesy along the river goes a long way. Make new friends and have fun, but remember all ages are on the river to have a good time.

sporting events...

In September, the Loudonville-Mohican Chamber of Commerce hosts the Mohican 5k Run/Walk. This 3.1-mile event begins and ends along the bike path on Wally Road. Proceeds from the Mohican 5k Run/Walk benefit the Loudonville-Mohican bike path, with proceeds helping with maintenance and improvements. A fun event for all.

Taking advantage of the outdoors and challenging the body is a Mohican tradition. Individual and family sporting events are available throughout the spring and summer. There are marathons, 50k and 100-mile treks on foot and on mountain bikes that take athletes across rivers, streams, hills, and several counties. These races welcome spectators and athletes of all levels to join in on the fun. Events start in April and run through October.

The Mohican Mountain Bike 100, a 100-mile and 100k race, is one of the most popular ultra-events in the U.S. and is an official stop along the National Ultra Endurance Race Series. The race begins in downtown Loudonville and participants pass through four counties along a single loop, with a total elevation gain of more than 11,000 feet. Racers go toe-to-toe with top pros on this legendary, ultra-endurance loop in Northeast Ohio.

For more than 25 years, the Mohican Trail 100 in June has offered runners a place to stretch their legs. Options for this race include 100 miles, 50 miles or the Mohican Marathon on Ohio's only off-road marathon. The 100-mile race is the fifth-oldest ultra-run in the world and home of the first-ever USATF National Championship in 2005. The race is held entirely along pristine trails in the 5,000-acre Mohican-Memorial State Forest, and the 32-hour time limit offers even fast walkers enough time to complete the marathon distance.

Mohican has so many things to do and see all year, that one season does not cover it all. Events and festivals bring people in all year. For some visitors, it is their first time here, while for others, it is like visiting an old friend.

- Start the year off with the Mohican Winterfest. Enjoy winter and all the fun with live ice-sculpting demonstrations. When spring is near, nature comes back to life and so do a lot of the animals. Celebrate spring during Mohican Wildlife Weekend in April. Get up close and personal with live animals, and take a hike off the beaten path to enjoy sites of the park only a few get to see.

Summer is alive and well. The International Wine at the Mill Fundraiser features nearly 100 varieties of international and domestic wines, live music, food and more. The Loudonville Car Show is always a great turnout in July. It is an award-winning car show with entertainment and fireworks. Visitors stand in awe at over 500 makes and models of vehicles.

As autumn sets in, make sure to join in on the Mohican Bluegrass Festival and Oktoberfest. The Mohican Bluegrass Festival hosts the best of Bluegrass music: an outdoor venue with food, vendors and, of course, music. Oktoberfest at the Mill Fundraiser is one of the area's most popular events, with live music and food. October will continue the fun with the Loudonville Street Fair. This free street fair is five full days of family fun and free entertainment.

where to stay... stay here

As the Camp & Canoe Capital of Ohio, Mohican would not be what it is without the approximately 4,500 campsites. Camping in the hills of Mohican is a time to make memories while sitting around the campfire. It is a great time to take a break, relax and live life a little simpler. Campsites range from primitive to full hookup. Make sure to visit DiscoverMohican.com for the campgrounds in the Mohican area.

REGARDLESS IF CAMPING IN A TENT OR RV, HERE ARE SOME TIPS TO HELP:

- Pack frozen food in the cooler. It will help keep food cold, and you may not have to buy as much ice.
- If camping with children, pack playing cards, board games and coloring books. Just in case it rains, this could be a big help.
- When packing up to travel back home, use that empty cooler for the dirty clothes. This will help save space in the vehicle.

If roughing it in a tent or RV is not the style of choice, Mohican area's lodging has numerous choices ranging from the primitive to the luxurious, family-friendly to the more private, romantic getaway. Some amenities include a hot tub, fireplace, indoor swimming pool, sauna, horse stables and more. Cabins, castle, cottages, rental homes, campgrounds, hotels, inns and lodges allow the visitor to customize the vacation with comfort and desire in mind. Several places are pet-friendly.

From the daring to the relaxing, outdoors or indoors, Mohican offers everyone an adventure to remember. Year-round events, history, nature and more are waiting for you in Mohican-Loudonville. Plan to stay a day or week. Enjoy all Mohican has to offer.

When the weather is warm, enjoy many of the outdoor activities. Canoe the Mohican River. Try zip-lining across the treetops. Test all levels of endurance at the Aerial Adventure Park. Hiking, mountain biking and horseback riding will also fill up the day with memories for a lifetime. Take in living history at one of Ohio's oldest working grist mills. Rent a boat at local marinas. Aim for a personal best on the golf course. It is all about personal relaxation and fun.

Should it start raining, enjoy many other activities. The local museum will keep interests alive with interactive displays. Speaking of history, make sure to check out the historic theatres where movies and concerts are available in a casual, elegant background of times gone by.

Tour Malabar Farm State Park, or drive our wine or brewery trail. As the weather cools off, come and enjoy the changing of the seasons. Follow State Route 97 to the popular Clear Fork Gorge Overlook and watch the trees turn to vibrant shades of reds, yellows and oranges. Snowmobiling and cross-country skiing trails are available at Mohican-Memorial State Forest. Parks, history, boating, fishing and more await you all year long. Discover Why Mohican Rocks!

The Ohio Theatre

knox county...

Live-performance theatres for an evening of culture, locally owned dining establishments, scenic rivers and a multitude of parks and trails provide opportunities to explore Knox County.

Bicyclers can now ride almost border to border on paved trails across Knox County. Spanning a distance of 35 miles, bikers can start at Brinkhaven on the Holmes County line and travel the Mohican Valley, Kokosing Gap and Heart of Ohio trails to Huffman Road southwest of Centerburg.

There are access points with parking areas at many locations. Starting at the Bridge of Dreams over the Mohican State Scenic River at Brinkhaven, there are parking lots at Hunter Road, East Street, Buckeye Road and Tiger Valley Road.

Take time to visit Schnormeier Gardens. These renowned gardens are privately owned and are only open the first weekend in June. The couple who owns the gardens has pulled inspiration from all over the world. Each year, they open the landscape to the public to share the grounds that bring them such joy.

Take time to visit the many independent boutiques, shops and local food initiative. Culture, education, history and more await the traveler in Knox County. For more information, check out VisitKnoxOhio.org.
